

PROFILE

Company	Hakusan Inc.
Head Office	Kuratsuki 2-2, Ishikawa Textile Hall 1F, Kanazawa, 9208203, Japan
Foundation	October 15, 1947
Capital Stock	JPY 100 Million
CEO President	Tatsuya Yonekawa
Business Locations	3 Offices / 2 R&D Centers 2 Factories / 1 Warehouse (Ishikawa / Tokyo / Saitama)
Employees	138 (as of April 1, 2022)

Products & Services	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fiber Optic Components • Surge Protection Devices • Uninterruptible Power Supplies • Heat-Pressure Welding Machines • Rail-Gas Pressure Welding Machines
Main Customers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • NTT group companies • Optical connector suppliers • Optical device suppliers • Electrical wire suppliers, etc.
Main Banks	Resona Bank / Hokkoku Bank
Awards	2020. 6 Global niche-top company by METI 2020.10 Local leading company by METI 2020.11 Active small and medium enterprise

HISTORY

1947	Hakusan Manufacturing Inc. founded in Tokyo
1948	Start of SPD Business for the Telephone System of Ministry of Communications (former NTT)
1964	Operation Start of Hanno Factory
1968	Business Start of Heat-pressure welding machine
1974	Business Start of Rail-gas welding machine for Japan Railway Corporation
1985	Sales Deployment of "Thunder_cut (SPD)"
1987	Production Start of PTC Thermistor

1989	Hakusan Elex Inc. fully financed by Hakusan Manufacturing Inc. (as a spined-off company for Telecom Products)
1996	ISO9001 Certificated
1997	Mass Production Start of MT Ferrule
2002	ISO14001 Certificated
2016	Merged with Hakusan Elex Inc. The Head office moved to Kanazawa. The official name changed to Hakusan Inc.
2020	Statement to comply with SDGs

Kanazawa Head Office

Ishikawa Factory

Tokyo Head Office (Sales HQ)

HAKUSAN

hakusan-mfg.co.jp/en

